ABOUT ELLIOT & ME

In the early 2000's, Elliot & Steven Willensky began to talk about fulfilling a lifelong dream—creating a musical of Elliot's songs featured between humorous family stories and adventures. In 2010, work began in earnest on Elliot & Me and after 10 years of development, Hudson Theatre Works is proud to stage the world premiere of this enchanting musical.

The real life brothers were born 10 years apart and they developed a very special bond that grew and had been tested over the years. Elliot & Me chronicles their lives and unfolds via a two man show. Elliot is a charming, free-spirited ladies' man overflowing with talent, joie de vivre, and a knack for driving Steven crazy. The brothers reflect on the volatile ups and downs of their shared experiences: from their raucous "wonder years" growing up in Bayonne, NJ; to the painful conflict when Elliot defies the expectations of his traditional middle-class Jewish family and drops out of medical school; to Elliot's rise to stardom writing hits for the likes of Michael Jackson, Smokey Robinson, and Whitney Houston; to Steven's starry-eyed admiration for his Hollywood lifestyle and, eventually, to their role reversals when Elliot's career hits a few bumps in the road and needs to rely on Steven for help. There are many layers and unexpected twists and turns in the book written Scott Coulter and Steven Willensky: the love story of brothers, the unmet parental expectations when neither son becomes a doctor, the fine line between success and failure, the willingness to take risks to fulfill dreams, and ultimately the brothers' realization of what is really important in life.

In addition to eight original numbers, the musical features many of Elliot's hit songs arranged by Michael Holland including the haunting I'm My Brother's Keeper, We've Got Forever, The Singer, and mega hits If You Say My Eyes Are Beautiful and Got to Be There.

WHO'S WHO

Eric Briarley* (Elliot) is thankful to help bring the story of Elliot & Me to life. Working with Drew (the Mensch of all mensches), and the entire production team has been a gift. Eric has traveled the world playing iconic characters such as Rhett Butler in a musical adaptation of Gone With The Wind, and Sam Carmichael in the International Musical sensation, Mamma Mia. Other credits include: Les Miserables (Broadway National Tour), My Fair Lady (Royal National Theatre—USA Tour), A Little Night Music (Goodspeed), Show Boat & Man Of La Mancha (Westchester Broadway Theatre), Ben, Virginia and Me (New York Music Festival). Much love to God, Amanda, Eli, Ava & Abigail. Instagram: @eric.briarley

Drew Seigla* (Steven) Richmond, VA native Drew Seigla is a standout among theatre and opera audiences, recognized for his “stunning tenor voice” by BroadwayWorld.com. He made his Off-Broadway debut as Matt; The Mute in The Fantasticks where he continued for a solid two-year stint. He gained his second NYC credit after joining the cast of Sweeney Todd as their Standby Anthony/Tobias/Beadle at Barrow St. Theatre. Regional Theatre highlights include Kiss me Kate at Flat Rock Playhouse & Jack in Into the Woods at Barksdale Theatre. Before returning to NYC in 2014 he made his opera debut with Lyric Opera Virginia, where he sang Gastone & covered Alfredo in La Traviata. Seigla was last seen as Pertshik in Fiddler on the Roof in Yiddish at Stage 42, directed by theatre legend, Joel Grey. Drew holds a B.M. from The Juilliard School, and studied Music Theatre at Elon University. Thanks to God, Mom and Dad, Steph, Michael, my friends & teachers. @drewseigla

Steven S. Willensky (Co-Writer, Conceiver and Producer) could often be spotted playing and singing at piano bars during his college days. However, after receiving an MBA from Northwestern, he spent the next 32 years as a corporate executive at GE, Medex, and American Greetings. During that time, Steven was advisor, confidant, and financial supporter to Elliot. Whenever in the same city, they would often perform duets of Elliot's songs at clubs and bars. Steven also collaborated with Elliot by coming up with the title and writing several lyrics to “Some Things Never Change”. The brothers frequently talked about developing a two-man show together. Steven would write the book and Elliot would supply the music. Elliot tragically passed away during the concept phase, but Steven moved forward with the dream and helped create and produce “Elliot and Me”. Steven currently serves on the boards of several startup companies and nonprofit organizations and is CEO of Woodstock Theater Group.

Scott Coulter (Co-writer book), star of the Emmy-nominated “A Christmas Carol: The Concert” on PBS, is one of New York's most honored vocalists and an Emmy nominee himself for “American Song.” He regularly performs with legendary artists including Stephen Schwartz, Tony-winner Ben Vereen and Grammy-winner Sheena Easton. Schwartz has said, “One of the greatest things that can happen to a composer is to have his music interpreted by Scott Coulter.” He performs with symphonies all over the world and has created many touring concert events including “Music of the Knights,” “Blockbuster Broadway,” “The Wonderful Music of Oz” and, with The ASCAP Foundation, “Jerry Herman: The Broadway Legacy Concert.” Scott is director of original programming at Feinstein's/54 Below and artistic director of the Pocono Mountains Music Festival. He's the owner/founder of Spot-On Entertainment (www.spot-onentertainment.com) and Spot-On Arts Academy and a proud graduate of University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music.

Elliot Willensky (Music & Lyrics) was an American composer, lyricist and music producer. His compositions were recorded by superstars Tony Orlando and Dawn, The 5th Dimension, Chaka Kahn, Charlene, Smokey Robinson, Gladys Knight, Kim Fields, Syreeta Wright, Thelma Houston, and Jerry Butler. He had hit records with Michael Jackson: “Dear Michael”, “We've Got Forever” and the #1 smash single, “Got to Be There”. His Whitney Houston/Jermaine Jackson duet of “If You Say My Eyes Are Beautiful” was released on three albums including Whitney's Greatest Hits. People Magazine ranks it as one of the Top 10 Wedding Songs of the 90's and was a recurring theme song on “As the World Turns”. Elliot composed the music for the Off-Broadway “Abby's Song”, as well as the “Beaver Creek Rendezvous” for Holland American Cruise Lines. Elliot wrote theme songs for the movies Mr. Atlas and The Karen Ann Quinlan Story, jingles for Hertz and Braniff Airlines, and was musical coordinator for the Tony Orlando Variety show on CBS.

Michael Holland (Musical Arranger) was orchestrator/vocal arranger/recording co-producer for the Broadway revival of Godspell. In 2019 he served as Music Director/Orchestrator/Vocal Arranger for Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park's acclaimed production of You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. His original score for Clue: A New Comedy (Cleveland Playhouse, 2020) will be published by Broadway Licensing in 2021. As composer/

lyricist, shows include Twelve Angry Men (Theatre Latté Da, Minneapolis)

Michael Bias (Director) Directing credits: World Premieres of Dreaded Bliss by Michael Bias, Billie by Michael Bias and Gail Lou, Meester Amerika, The Legacy and Lost In History by Adam Siegel. Other directing credits include, Landscape of the Body, Ubu Roi, Spring Awakening, Table Manners, Trad, A Body of Water, The Bald Soprano, Billy Bishop Goes To War, Collected Stories, The Maids, Porcelain and Doubt. Acting credits include: Kenneth Lay in Enron!, Bernie Madoff in Imagining Madoff, Devlin in Harold Pinter's Ashes to Ashes, Andrey in Brian Friel's Afterplay and Jerry in Edward Albee's The Zoo Story. Other writing credits include: the book for More Than A Soap Opera (music by Ray Davies of The Kinks), and Summer of Love. He has also created new translations/adaptations of August Strindberg's Miss Julie and Eugene Ionesco's The Bald Soprano. He is currently working on a one person show, Friends. Mr. Bias is the Director of The Forge, the playwriting wing of Hudson Theatre Works.

Victoria Casella (Musical Director) is an actor/singer, musical director/pianist and teacher. Most recently she was MD for “A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder” at Florida Repertory Theatre and MD / Arranger for “The Green Crow Caws” at the Irish Repertory Theatre, NYC. She was also recently awarded Broadway World Best Musical Direction for Regional Theater (Fort Myers/Naples, Florida) for her work on “Night and Day” at Florida Repertory Theatre. Other credits with FL REP are: MD “Tenderly: The Rosemary Clooney Musical”, MD/ Creative Team for “Fascinating Gershwin” and MD for “Spelling Bee”. Other MD credits: “Dirty Rotten Scoundrels”, “The Full Monty”, “Romance Romance”, “Altar Boyz” for Theatre Barn. Acting credits: Susanna in “Daredevil” (Netflix), Mrs. Aaronson in “The Gold” (NYMF), Marie (understudy) in “The Most Happy Fella” (Goodspeed). Most recent: Co-Writer with Michael Bias (book) and Musical Arranger for “The Circle Game” (spring PlayLab, FL REP).

Josh Hemmo (Lighting Designer) is a NYC based lighting designer and is thrilled to be working with Hudson Theater Works again. Notable credits include: Revelation: The Musical (Off-Broadway), Humanity’s Child (Off-Broadway), Drowsy Chaperone (Off-Broadway), Hamlet (Hudson Theatre Works), Cleopatra: A Pop Experience (Off-Off Broadway), Grease, Route 66 (Sierra Repertory Theatre), New Brain (FSU), Show Risque (Hard Rock Hotel Biloxi). <https://www.jhemmolighting.com/>

Donald Stark (Sound Designer) composes for film, stage, musicals, TV, and podcasts. Recently, Donald composed the music for two musicals, including Joanne Hoersch’s Starring Elizabeth. Last two seasons, Donald designed sound, and directed and composed music, for several Hudson Theatre Works productions, including Hamlet, Body of an American, Caretaker, Uncle Vanya, and... that Scottish play. Donald has also served as sound designer for productions mounted by Jersey City Theater Center, United Solo, NY Fringe Festival, Luna Stage, Garage Theatre Group, Theater Project’s Think Fast competition, NJ Theatre Alliance’s Stages Festival, and Rosendale Theater. Donald is an ASCAP member. <http://donaldstark.com>.

Harrison Stengle (Projections) is an independent theatrical and cinematic producer in the Philadelphia and New York regions. Harrison is organizing a tour for “A Literal Dollhouse” which is a modern interpretation of Ibsen Classic which focuses primarily on the controversy surrounding the children of the play. This production will tour throughout the east coast. He is also working on funding a WWI feature film. Right now, Harrison is in the process of making a feature film based on the cult classic comic “Johnny the Homicidal Maniac.”

Augusta McMahon (Intern/ASM) is happy to be back at Hudson Theatre Works after working on “Bunnies.” She graduated from The Brearley School in New York City this past June. She spent all of her extracurricular hours at Brearley with the Drama Department, acting in the fall and spring and doing tech in the winter. She played Proteus in The Two Gentlemen of Verona, Eddie Carbone in A View from the Bridge, Algernon in The Importance of Being Earnest, Duke Orsino in Twelfth Night, Frank in The School for Lies, Big Mama in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, Kitty Bennet in Pride and Prejudice, and Mortimer Brewster in Arsenic and Old Lace. While acting in high school was the time of her life, she wants to move on to pursue acting on a professional level and this internship has shown her what that future could look like. She is on her gap year and will continue to find more opportunities like this one, especially considering how much she’s enjoyed her time working behind the scenes of Bunnies. Augusta is thrilled to have worked on her first Hudson Theatre Works production and is extremely thankful to Frank Licato, Dawn D’Arrigo, and the whole cast for making her feel welcome and comfortable.

Sarah Clarehart (Poster Design) is a veteran graphic designer and photographer with decades of experience, has worked with HTW creating show graphics and programs for many shows including: A Steady Rain, Uncle Vanya, Macbeth, Hamlet, The Caretaker, The Body of an American, Bunnies, and Elliot & Me.
